

2015–16 Assessment Schedule

The test dates listed below are for assessments administered through the South Carolina Department of Education's Office of Assessment. Some test dates have not been determined because testing contracts have not been awarded. Districts will be notified when changes are made to this schedule.

Prekindergarten and Kindergarten Assessments

Districts must administer assessments to each student in 4-year-old and 5-year-old kindergarten once during the first 45 days of the school year and once during the last 45 days of the school year. Districts may choose the assessment to administer to 4-year-old kindergarten students from the list below. All districts must administer the DRA-2nd Edition Plus to 5-year-old kindergarten students.

Assessments For Which Test Dates Have Not Yet Been Determined

End-of-Course Assessments for Geometry and English 2

These assessments will be administered beginning in spring 2016, if required for federal accountability. Test names and administration dates will be announced as soon as the procurement activities are finalized.

English Language Proficiency (ELP) Assessments

The ELP assessments are typically administered from mid-February to mid-March. Test names and administration dates will be announced as soon as the procurement activities are finalized.

South Carolina Palmetto Assessment of State Standards (SCPASS) Science and Social Studies Grades 4-8

Testing and make-up testing for SCPASS are typically scheduled during the first few weeks in May. However, to ensure there is not a conflict with the administration of the summative assessments for ELA and mathematics, test dates for SCPASS science and social studies and for the ELA and mathematics assessments for grades 3–8 will be announced at the same time.

Summative Assessments for ELA and Mathematics Grades 3–8 and 11 (Grades 9 and 10, if funds are available)

Test names and administration dates will be announced as soon as the procurement activities are finalized.
